Section 2. Quorum: For the general membership meetings shall be those members present.

Section 3. Voting: Items requiring a vote of the membership shall be done by voice, hand or paper whichever the President deems necessary. Refer to Article IV Board of Directors, Section 4. Nominations and Elections for voting on elections.

Article VIII Finances

Section 1. Fiscal year: Shall be July 1st to June 30th of each year.

Section 2. Banking: All funds shall be kept in a checking account in the name of Shepardson Elementary PTO, requiring two signatures as that listed in Article VIII Finances, Section 6. Disbursement of Funds, G and held at a local financial institution.

Section 3. Reporting: All financial activity shall be recorded in a computer-based or online accounting system. The Treasurer shall reconcile the account(s) monthly with Ways and Means and report all financial activities monthly.

- a. All financial software, passwords and documents shall be transferred to the new Treasurer.

Section 4. Ending Balance: At the end of each fiscal year, the PTO shall have a minimum bank balance adequate to cover any unpaid items from the previous year in addition to having enough money to cover all budgeted expenses expected the next year prior to the first fundraiser.

- a. Any remaining amounts shall either be saved for a future project or be given to the school as an additional bonus donation for a project.
- b. At any time, the PTO banking account(s) may contain money being saved for a specific future project(s).
- c. The amount of money that will remain in the PTO's banking account(s) at the end of each fiscal year will be approved at the last general meeting of the fiscal year.

Section 5. Contracts: Authority to sign contracts is limited to the President or the President's designee. No contract shall be signed without prior board approval.

Section 6. Disbursement of Funds: Disbursement of Shepardson PTO funds shall be in alignment with this organization's purpose, objectives and the 501(c)(3) tax-exempt status. The specific guidelines for the disbursement of funds are:

- a. Does this enhance the quality of education?
- b. Does this meet our purpose, objectives, and long-term goals?
- c. The PTO shall be within the guidelines of the Bylaws, Article II Purpose, Objective and General Policies, Section 2. Objectives, e, concerning tax-exempt associations.
- d. The Treasurer shall submit a formal request of funds to the PTO Board of Directors for review if it is less than $250.00 and may be presented at a general membership meeting. The Treasurer or the requesting party shall present all formal requests more than $250.00 at the next general membership meeting. The formal request shall include a detailed description and itemized cost for each proposed disbursement from the requester who must also provide supporting documentation such as receipts and any corresponding invoices.
- e. Requests for funds from staff must be accompanied by the PTO Request for Funds form.
- f. The Treasurer shall keep a record of the actual use and itemized cost of each disbursement made.
- g. Two authorized signatures shall be required on each check. Authorized signers shall be the President, Vice President and Treasurer, as long as they are not related by birth, family or marriage.
- h. Contributions to Shepardson STEM Elementary or approved clubs and teams shall be voted and approved by majority vote.
- i. Shepardson STEM Elementary and approved clubs and teams must adhere to the specific guidelines for the disbursement of funds as outlined in this section.
- j. All disbursed funds that are not utilized by the approved recipient in accordance with the budget, must be returned to the Shepardson PTO and remain in the direct control of the organization.
- k. Disbursed funds must be spent in accordance with the budget as outlined in Article VIII Finances, Section 8. Budget, of this document.

Section 7. Money Handling Policies: Any PTO supported event, fundraiser or activity that handles money will be required to adhere to the following:

- a. No money should leave the school grounds except for in the direct control of the current PTO Treasurer or any other PTO Board of Director who is a current signee on the PTO bank account.
- b. All money should be counted by at least two people (preferably the committee chair and a member) within 48 business hours of the event and signed off at such time.
- c. Until the money leaves the school grounds with the Treasurer or appointed person, all money should be kept in the PTO designated location.
- d. All corresponding forms for deposit must be signed and filled out properly prior to submitting them to the Treasurer. The Treasurer and/or signees reserve the right to refuse deposit if forms are not fully completed prior to submission.
- e. Any money leaving the school should already have been counted and PTO deposit slips should be filled out and signed by the event chair(s).
- f. All reimbursement and deposit requests must follow the current PTO procedures. At this time the requirements are that a copy of the completed request slip is given to the Treasurer, a copy to the President(s), and a copy to the requester/chairperson(s) as per the instructions on the bottom of the slips.

- g. Reimbursement requests should be filled out by the requestor and given, along with receipts and any corresponding invoices, to the event chair(s). After validating the request, the event chair(s) will turn in all reimbursements slips to the Treasurer. The Treasurer and/or signees reserve the right to refuse reimbursement requests if forms are not fully completed prior to submission.
- h. The Treasurer will use the PTO deposit slip to properly categorize the funds received in the monthly reports and to track revenue to the correct fundraiser. Individual checks with insufficient information documented in the memo line of the check may be deposited at the discretion of the Treasurer.
- i. Under certain circumstances and with adequate process controls, EFT withdrawals may be utilized to enable fundraising programs when dictated by the vendor.
- j. Guidelines for Committee/Fundraising Chairs:
 - i. Checks are to be made out to "Shepardson PTO".
 - ii. Checks are to be written in dark ink (no red pens!)
 - iii. Checks are to have all staples removed.
 - iv. Checks are to have the fundraiser listed on the memo line.
 - v. If the fundraiser involves student sales, checks are to have the student's first name and last initial. In the event of a returned check, this will facilitate stopping delivery of product (if possible) and for adjusting the student's sales total for prizes.

Section 8. Budget: It is recommended that a working budget be created in the spring with the participation of the current PTO Board and any incoming new PTO Board members.

- a. The budget should be approved at the last general meeting of the school year (generally May).
- b. The budget is contingent on available funds.
- c. Once a general membership vote approves the budget, the PTO Board of Directors, President, or Treasurer has the authority to disburse funds, in accordance with said budget, when they are available.
- d. Funds from the miscellaneous expense line item in the budget, or any surplus of funds beyond what has been budgeted, must be approved by the majority of the PTO Board of Directors in accordance with Article VIII Finances, Section 6. Disbursement of Funds of the Bylaws.
- e. Expenditures from the miscellaneous expense line, or any surplus funds beyond what has been budgeted, of up to $250.00 may be approved by majority vote of the PTO Board of Directors and reported at the next general membership meeting.
- f. Changes to the budget during the school year may be requested. Changes must be approved at a general membership meeting of the PTO in accordance with 501(c) (3) tax law concerning designated funds.

Section 9. Audit: The Treasurer shall prepare a financial statement at the end of the fiscal year, to be reviewed by the audit committee. The PTO shall arrange for an audit committee to review of its financial records each year.

- a. Audit Committee: This committee shall be appointed of at least two (2) non-Board of Directors members and be appointed by the President.
- b. Shall work with the Treasurer, Ways and Means and conduct a review over the summer of the previous fiscal year.
- c. At the completion of the review the Audit Committee shall affix their signatures to it.

Article IX Conflict of Interest Policy

Section 1. Purpose: A board member with a personal or private interest in a matter proposed or pending before the Board shall disclose such interest to the Board in an open meeting prior to any discussion or action on that issue. The board member may participate in the discussion but shall not vote on that issue. This policy is intended to supplement but not replace any applicable state and/or federal laws governing conflict of interest applicable to nonprofit and charitable organizations.

Section 2. Definitions:

- a. Interested Person: Any Board of Director, or PTO member with powers who has a direct or indirect financial interest, as defined below, is an interested person.
- b. Financial Interest: A person has a financial interest if the person has, directly or indirectly, through business, investment, or family:
 - i. An ownership or investment interest in any entity with which the organization has a transaction or arrangement;
 - ii. A compensation arrangement with the organization or with any entity or individual with which the organization has a transaction or arrangement; or
 - iii. A potential ownership or investment interest in, or compensation arrangement with, any entity or individual with which the organization is negotiating a transaction or arrangement.
“Compensation” includes direct and indirect remuneration as well as gifts or favors that are not insubstantial.

A financial interest is not necessarily a conflict of interest. Under Section 3b, a person who has a financial interest may have a conflict of interest only if the Board of Directors or committee decides that a conflict of interest exists.

Section 3. Procedures:

- a. Duty to Disclose: In connection with any actual or possible conflict of interest, an interested person must disclose the existence of the financial interest and be given the opportunity to disclose all material facts to the Board of Directors and members of committees who are considering the proposed transaction or arrangement.
- b. Determining Whether a Conflict of Interest Exists: After Disclosure of the financial interest and all material facts, and after any discussion with the interested person, he/she shall leave the Board of Director meeting or committee meeting while the determination of the conflict of interest is discussed and voted upon. The remaining Board of Directors or committee members shall decide whether a conflict of interest exists.
- c. Procedures for Addressing the Conflict of Interest:
 - i. An interested person may make a presentation at the Board of Directors or committee meeting, but after the presentation, he/she shall leave the meeting during the discussion of, and the vote on, the transaction or arrangement involving the possible conflict of interest
 - ii. The President or chairperson of the committee shall, if appropriate, appoint a disinterested person or committee to investigate alternatives to the proposed transaction or arrangement.
 - iii. After exercising due diligence, the Board of Directors or committee shall determine whether the organization can obtain, with reasonable efforts, a more advantageous transaction or arrangement from a person or entity that would not give rise to a conflict of interest.

d. Violations of the Conflict of Interest Policy:

- i. If the Board of Directors or committee has reasonable cause to believe a member has failed to disclose actual or possible conflicts of interest, it shall inform the member of the basis for such belief and afford the member an opportunity to explain the alleged failure to disclose.
- ii. If, after hearing the member's response and after making further investigation as warranted by the circumstances, the Board of Directors or committee determines that the member has failed to disclose an actual or possible conflict of interest, it shall take appropriate disciplinary and corrective action.

Section 4. Records of Proceedings: The minutes of the Board of Directors and all committees with board delegated powers shall contain:

- a. The names of the persons who disclosed or otherwise were found to have a financial interest in connection with an actual or possible conflict of interest; the nature of the financial interest; any action taken to determine whether a conflict of interest was present' and the governing board's or committee's decision as to whether a conflict of interest in fact existed.
- b. The names of the persons who were present for discussions and votes relation to the transaction or arrangement; the content of the discussion; including any alternatives to the proposed transaction or arrangement; and a record of any votes taken in connection with the proceedings.

Article X PARLIAMENTARY AUTHORITY

All questions of order not provided by the Bylaws shall be decided by Robert's Rules of Order.

Article XI Dissolution

Upon the dissolution of the PTO, any remaining funds shall be used to pay any outstanding bills and, with the membership's approval, spent for the benefit of the school or given to another 501(c) (3) organization in the event that the school is shuttered.

Article XII Disclosure Requirements

Individuals requesting information from the PTO should be directed to our website. Many of these are required per IRS guidelines at www.stayexempt.com. We shall post on our website the following items:

- a. Last 3 annual federal returns (990 or 990-EZ)
- b. Last 3 annual federal 990 or 990-EZ, Schedule A or Schedule G as applicable
- c. IRS Tax Exempt Status Determination Letter
- d. Current Colorado Charitable Organizations Registration
- e. These Bylaws and Standing Rules

Article XIII AMENDMENTS

These Bylaws may be amended at any General Membership Meeting of the organization by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the members present and voting, provided notice of the proposed amendments was given at a previous meeting or by written notice to each member at least one (1) week prior to a General Membership Meeting.
